RECORD PASSAGE.

American Ship Aryon Arrives 17 Days From Yokohama.

At noon yesterday the ship Aryon, H. A. St. Clair master, arrived in the harbor, 17 days from Yokohama. This is said to be the quickest trip on record, and as it is Captain St. Clair's first voyage as master, he feels highly pleased.

The Aryon left New York in November last for Yokohama, with a cargo Hawaiian Construction Company, of case oil. She took the eastern pass- Limited will be held at the office of the then sailed here in ballast. Captain ness of importance. St. Clair expects to have his cargo of New York sugar aboard in time to leave July 1st. This is his first voyage here since 1891 when, for several years, he was mate of the Robert Lewers.

The Aryon was built in Phippsburg, Maine, in 1893, and is the last American-built wooden ship, and as it is not intended that any more wooden ships shall be built over there, the Aryon The tides and moon phases are given in will some day be an historical bit of the American merchant marine. Her managing owner is C. V. Minott.
